CASCADIA CRUISE CO. · FIELD NOTES · PARTNERS WE EAT WITH

Thank you, Bamboo Sushi.

Ten years of good reasons.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ RETURN ON INVESTMENT REVIEW

For the Bamboo Sushi teams, NW 23rd in Portland + Lake Oswego

---

This one's a thank-you first. For close to ten years, Bamboo Sushi has been my answer. I've taken myself on a date there. I've been taken on dates there. My best friends had them cater their party.

So when a multilingual, multicultural group of students needed a boost of energy and something delicious and locally inspired, I didn't have to think twice. I sent them to Bamboo.

That's concierge, Cascadia style: the recommendation you'd give your own family, from a place that's earned it. Bamboo calls itself the world's first certified sustainable sushi restaurant and a "restaurant of purpose," and it shows up that way every time.

> Good food is good care.
> Share it with the people you love.

That's the whole thesis of Cascadia Cruise Co.: the hours between visits matter, and so does who you share them with. A rising tide lifts all boats, and good partners lift the whole table.
